1th WORKSHOP on Applied Financial Econometrics

MSH de Paris Nord, on September 15th 2017

Labex MME-DII

The Labex MME-DII, together with the CEPN and the University Paris Nord, is organizing its 1th workshop in Financial Econometrics on September 15th in Paris (France).

The goal of this workshop is to bring together European researchers on financial econometrics to discuss current frontier research on a regular basis.

Applications from economists from all French and European institutions are welcomed in all fields of applied financial econometrics including macro-finance and monetary econometrics. Theoretical contributions are welcome.

The workshop is a one day workshop, which will take place in Paris at MSH Paris Nord on September 15th.
